

incident report

School Name:

Malvern Russian Community School

The child safe standards require organisations that provide services for children to have processes for responding to and reporting suspected child abuse.¹ You can provide this resource to a child or their family if they disclose an allegation of abuse or safety concern in your organisation. Your staff can also use this resource to record disclosures.

If a child discloses an incident of abuse to you.

If a parent/carer says their child has been abused in your organisation or raises a concern.

The Child Safety Officer, or their nominee, will notify the child's family, and investigate the alleged incident as quickly as possible.

All incident reports must be stored securely.

In particular, An Overview to the Victorian child safe standards, has information to help organisations understand the requirements of each of the child safe standards, including examples of measures organisations can put in place, a self-audit tool and a glossary of key terms: <www.dhs.vic.gov.au/__data/assets/word_doc/0005/955598/Child-safe-standards_overview.doc>

Note for registered schools: a forthcoming Ministerial Order under the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 will contain the minimum actions that schools must take to meet each of the child safe standards. There will be a lead in time before regulation will commence to allow schools time to prepare. The Department of Education and Training and the Victorian Registration and Qualifications Authority will provide information and materials specifically for schools to assist with capacity building and compliance.
